A potluck for PATCA members
Join us for a party to celebrate the holidays.
Bring drinks and your favorite dish to share.

- If you are a new PATCA member this is a chance to meet other consultants in an informal setting and get better acquainted!
- If you have been in PATCA a while, it's a chance to see old friends and reconnect!
- If you have been thinking about joining PATCA, here is a good excuse to join PATCA today and take part in the gathering!

We are supplying the turkey and are looking forward to celebrating with everyone. Please RSVP by Thursday, Dec 7 if you plan to attend and let us know what you plan to bring so we can get a final headcount.
